Watertown Mayor and Codington County Commission Chair Close Public Buildings

WATERTOWN, S.D. – March 22, 2020– To further decrease the risk of coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) in the region, Mayor Sarah Caron has closed all public city buildings. Codington County Commissioner Chair Brenda Hanten has also closed all public county buildings except that court related activities will remain operational. At each door of the courthouse, there will be a sign posted stating the Clerk of Court is available at the following phone number 605-882-5095 for more information. These closures are to limit exposure of the virus. Business can still be done via telephone and electronic means.
